SUMMARY

Product Manager driving platform strategy and revenue growth in high-complexity marketplaces through discovery-led product decisions, data-informed prioritization, and cross-functional execution. Proven impact: $10M+ cumulative revenue, 15%+ conversion lifts, and successful scaling across 5 international markets. Philosophy: Ruthless prioritization backed by user insights and experimentation rigor. Hands-on with SQL, Python, and analytics—comfortable validating strategic hypotheses independently.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Copart

Product Manager

Mar 2023 - Present

Dallas, TX

- Diagnosed root cause of declining buyer engagement through cohort analysis and user research, hypothesized checkout flow friction was limiting conversions; designed and shipped streamlined UX, driving 15% conversion lift and $2M+ incremental revenue
- Set and owned OKR to reduce buyer churn by 20% in international markets; led discovery research across 5 regions (UK, Oman, Bahrain, Spain, Finland) that surfaced localization needs; shipped 8 features and GTM strategy, capturing 10% of total GMV and 40%+ YoY EMEA growth
- Evaluated APAC market expansion through TAM analysis and competitive research across 6 potential markets; identified product-market fit concerns and lower unit economics; made strategic decision to pause APAC entry and focus engineering on EMEA deepening, protecting bandwidth and improving unit margins by 18%
- Identified that enterprise insurer onboarding required manual work, creating velocity bottleneck; led product discovery, wrote PRD for Guidewire ClaimCenter integration, reduced onboarding from 6 weeks to 2 weeks, enabling $500K+ partnership revenue
- Owned data strategy for marketplace efficiency metrics; built self-serve analytics platform and KPI framework from zero, reducing ad-hoc reporting requests by 40% and enabling cross-functional teams (sales, ops, risk) to make data-informed decisions independently; freed up analytics team to focus on strategic initiatives, reducing decision turnaround from 5 days to 1 day
- Influenced $2M+ in multi-quarter product allocation decisions by presenting quarterly strategic analysis to C-suite on market opportunities, competitive positioning, and ROI impact
